ORDER MESSAGES

Thank you for your order. This message is to confirm the order you placed at NFPA's Online catalog. Pending credit card verification, your credit card will be charged for any inventoried products at the time they are shipped from our warehouse. At that time, if you requested rush (expedited) or international delivery of your order, those charges will be added to the final cost. NFPA will work to get you the lowest rate possible.

No shipping charge is added if you purchased only non-shippable goods.

Your purchase includes an NFPA Code or Standard. Occasionally NFPA issues technical interpretations and/or corrections to its Standards. You will be notified by email if a technical interpretation or correction is issued. If you prefer not to receive the email notification, click here.

For the best reading experience of your NFPA PDF, we recommend using the free NFPA eReader application. Use the link below to download the NFPA eLibrary app. Login with your NFPA username and password. Access is immediate.
